Aniline

Inherent in hides:

- Natural Markings
- Fat Wrinkles
- Healed Scars

Capri, a soft aniline leather that's as inviting as the Mediterranean isle itself. After dyeing, the hides receive a slight savage effect; then treated with a liquid stain guard for added protection. A special vac drying technique is used to give a beautiful natural sheen and silky hand that will never puddle or stretch after upholstering. This luxurious leather will develop a beautiful patina over time and use.
