

Rainy Days

Aniline

Inherent in hides:

- Natural markings
- Fat wrinkles
- Healed scars

When you hear that “Rolling Thunder”, know that RAINY DAYS will “Weather the Storm”. A waterproof agent is applied during the drum dye process allowing for full absorption through the hide. So go “Puddle Jumping” or enjoy a “Romantic Rain” because this nubuck is made to repel liquids until the “Sun will Shine”. As natural as “Meadow Flowers”, each hide is unique showcasing hallmarks of a genuine leather such as healed scars, fat wrinkles, etc. With a finish as soft to touch as “Catching Clouds” or a “Lullaby”, a “Stormy Slumber” is surely near.
